1. The following military units and installations are located in Sinj:

a. An infantry regiment of approximately eight or nine thousand men is quartered in the pre-war, two-story barracks in Sinj. The commandant is a major who is a native of Udovice (near Sinj).

b. An artillery division of undetermined size is also quartered in the pre-war barracks. Behind these barracks three or four large wooden buildings have been erected. These buildings serve as horse stables and truck garages.

five horse-drawn field artillery pieces and three truck-drawn artillery pieces with pneumatic tires have been seen in the area. One of the batteries of the division is quartered in the old fort of Trnovec, which has been reconditioned. A lieutenant is in charge of the battery, which has a complement of approximately sixty men.

2. The ammunition dump is located in a one-story building, situated on the road to Glavice village. The dump is surrounded by a high wall topped with barbed wire and is constantly guarded by three men. Material, from Sinj or Split, is often brought to the dump.

3. The military sector has its offices on Glavicka Street, in the center of Sinj. The commandant is an unknown captain, who has a lieutenant, a standard-bearer, and six or seven non-commissioned officers as his assistants.

4. The KNOJ battalion is quartered in a large one-story building located on the outskirts of Sinj. There are approximately two hundred fifty or three hundred men, mostly of Slovene origin in the battalion.

5. The UDB district offices are located in a long, one-story building in Petrovac. In the same building is the district Ministry of Interior offices.

50X1-HUM

Comment: the 14 Infantry Regiment of the 19 Division, with Major Marijan Radošević as its commander, is located in Sinj.
